

educating for cultural literacy and mutual respect

ING Curriculum: Muslim Contributions to Civilization

Table of Contents

Introduction: Curriculum Standards, Relevant Themes and Lesson Topics

Lesson One: World Civilizations

Lesson One Presentation Content: Muslim Contributions to Civilization, Flow of Civilization, The Missing Link, Elements of Culture

Post-Presentation Questions and Activities

Supplemental Film Content: 1001 Inventions and the Library of Secrets

Lesson Two: Home and Daily Life

Lesson Two Presentation Content: Drinks, Cuisine, Spices, Fruits, Vegetables, Sweets, Clothing, Fabrics, Hygiene, Lifestyle, Furniture, Carpets

Post-Presentation Questions and Activities

Supplemental Film Content: Coffee, The Worlds Most Popular Drink; What the Ancients Did for Us: The Islamic World

Lesson Three: Architecture, the Arts, and Recreation

Lesson Three Presentation Content: Architecture, Architectural Masterpieces, City Planning, Gardens, Tiles, Art and Arabesque, Calligraphy, Glassmaking, Trade and Commerce, Music, Musical Instruments, Musical Influences, Polo, The Arabian Horse, Chess

Post-Presentation Questions and Activities

Supplemental Film Content: Paradise Found: Discovering Islamic Art; What the Ancients Did For Us - The Islamic World; Artsworld – Cairo Oud; The Blues: Feel Like Going Home; The Arabian Horse

Lesson Four: Libraries, Colleges, and Mathematics

Lesson Four Presentation Content: Paper and Books, Libraries, Colleges and Universities, Mathematics, Arabic Numerals, Geometry

Post-Presentation Questions and Activities

Supplemental Film Content: Islam, Empire of Faith: Part 2: The Awakening; Morocco's Oldest Library, Science and Islam by Professor Jim al-Khalili – Part 1: Language of Science; The Story of Math: The Genius of the East; Science and Islam by Professor Jim al-Khalili – Part 2: The Empire of Reason

Lesson Five: Medicine, Hospitals, and Pharmacies

Lesson Five Presentation Content: Medicine, Physicians, Anatomy, Surgery, Hospitals, Pharmacies, Zoology

Post-Presentation Questions and Activities

Supplemental Film Content: Science and Islam by Professor Jim al-Khalili – Part 1: Language of Science; Islam, Empire of Faith: Part 2: The Awakening; A Conversation with Ibn Sina Performed by Roger Worrod

Lesson Six: Science and Humanities

Lesson Six Presentation Content: Astronomy, Astronomers, Constellations and Stars, Observatories, Optics, Timekeeping, Mechanical Inventions, Aviation, Cartography and Navigation, Geography and History, Philosophy, Literature, Poetry, Language Tolerance, Famous American Muslims, Conclusion

Post-Presentation Questions and Activities

Supplemental Film Content: What the Ancients Did For Us - The Islamic World; Al-Jazari's Elephant Clock Through the Eyes of Ibn Battuta; Science and Islam by Professor Jim al-Khalili – Part 2: The Empire of Reason