Dear good people at ING,

On behalf of the people of the Interfaith Council of Contra Costa County, I convey to you our heartiest congratulations and sincerest good wishes on the occasion of your 19th anniversary. (That number is propitious within the Baha'i community.)

You have been working well and tirelessly to build bridges of understand and respect among people of all faiths for what is, in the interfaith world, a long time. I have my own ear to the ground, and can say that I am constantly hearing good things about ING. You are being effective, positive, collaborative and clever all at once, not an easy thing to do. And it doesn't hurt that you have one of the premier non-profit directors in the Bay Area.

The more that ING thrives, the better the best of us do also. May a thousand flowers bloom in our efforts to bring about a more loving, caring world, and may many of those blossoms be in your own backyard and as a result of the hands of your gardeners.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. Brian Stein-Webber
