Assalaam Alaikum,

On behalf of the West Valley Muslim Association, I would like to congratulate Islamic Networks Group (ING) on its 19th anniversary. ING has been a powerful and effective agent for interfaith outreach and education on behalf of the Muslim community. By bringing Muslim speakers into classrooms, hospitals, and many other public and private institutions, ING has taken on the difficult task of combating the rising tide anti-Muslim bias in our country. Also, ING's interfaith work has built strong partnerships with other faith-based groups at a time when communication and understanding are so important.

Through its network of affiliates, ING is able to extend its reach nationwide. As a result, every year tens of thousands of Americans develop a better and more accurate understanding of Muslim Americans, and therefore a more positive view of Muslims and Islam. ING has also partnered with other religious groups who lend support to ING's mission to fight Islamophobia.

We wish ING continued success in promoting the Islamic values of mutual respect and understanding among all faiths.

Sincerely,

Yacoub El-Ziq

President
West Valley Muslim Association
